

LITERARY NOTES.

Mr. Thomas Brassey, M.P., is preparing a narrative of his recent yachting voyages around the world.

Mr. John S. Hittell, author of a "History of Culture," is about publishing a "History of San Francisco."

Mr. Gladstone will contribute to The Contemporary Review for July an article on "Raja Brooke and Birkenhead."

The new issue of the British Poets, by Hurd & Houghton, will begin with Wordsworth, which will be ready in July.

The "Sunday Shakspere Society" of London holds outdoor meetings Sundays, for the reading of the plays.

Mr. Eugene Lawrence's humor of Greek and Latin literature will be the next addition to the Harper Half-hour series.

A little guide for sea-side visitors, on "Sea Air and Sea Bathing," by Charles Parsons, M. D., is to be published by Lindsey & Blackston.

A "Teachers' Manual" of the Metric System is to be published by the American Metric Bureau, Boston, in season for the fall schools.

Mr. A. Gallenga, the well-known correspondent of the London Times, is preparing a two-volume work entitled "Two Years of the Eastern Question."

The second part of Prof. Thorpe's Inorganic Chemistry, on Nitrate, will shortly be published by G. P. Putnam's Sons, in their Advanced Science Series.

Five editions of the Rev. Dr. Weninger's reply to Secretary Thompson's book on "The Papacy and the Civil Power" have been sold in less than three weeks.

A work on "The Growth of the Spirit of Christianity from the First Century to the Dawn of the Lutheran Era," by the Rev. George Matheson, M. A., is in press in Edinburgh.

"A Day of My Life at Eton" proves the pioneer of more Eton literature. "Out of School at Eton," a collection of poetry and prose writings by some present Etonians just announced in London.

Prof. Thurston, of the Stevens Institute, Hoboken, has prepared a comprehensive "History of the Scandina-via," with many illustrations, which will be published in the International Scientific Series.

The July number of Mind will contain, from the pen of Mr. Darwin, a "Biographical Sketch of an Infant," the record of a series of careful observations on the early mental development of one of his sons.

A new Southern story, picturing life in southwestern Louisiana, is in press by T. B. Peterson & Son, from the pen of Mrs. Sarah J. Duray, of Mississippi. "Fusion" is the name of the heroine and of the book.

The Rev. H. M. Dexter, D.D., is preparing for the press his lectures on the early history of Congress, which he has been delivering at Andover, and of which synopses in The Independent have attracted notice.

Mr. Horace E. Scudder is getting up a new book for the little people, "The Booksellers' Stories." Many young readers made pleasant acquaintance with the Bodley family, through his introduction, two years ago.

The vest-pocket books would now more than fill the spacious coat-pockets of Gen. Daniel Pratt with their Laliberté claims. Nevertheless, Osgood & Co. will shortly be printing in volume form, by the end of August, a new edition of Mark Twain's Innocents Abroad.

The Way of Life is a coming service-book for liberal Sunday Schools, which is pronounced peculiarly excellent by such leaders of the two camps as Dr. Bishay and Fotheringham. It is written by the Rev. F. L. Hosmer of Quincy, Ill., at the request of the Northwestern Sunday School Association, and will be published by G. P. Putnam's Sons.

The story of Italian struggles for independence during the last hundred years will be fully told by the historian Cesare Cambi in a book which will become a classic. Crusade and Revolution in Italy is the title of the volume, devoted especially to the fight for freedom against the French, the Austrian, and the National cause of the question.

A series of sketches of the Coast and Harbors of Labrador, by Gen. E. Gravenor, of Worcester, Mass., will shortly be printed in volume form, by the end of August, a new edition of Mark Twain's Innocents Abroad.
